

ON VACATION . . . The college crowd returned home this week for Spring vacation and a great many of them shunned the resort areas to stay home and catch up on things like gossiping with pals. A popular meeting place is the Jackson home, 824 Beech Ave. Shown here, from

THEN THERE'S SEWING . . . Making Spring cottons and Easter outfits are Peggy Wood, a Chi Omega, and Julie Rhone, also a Chi Omega. Most of the coeds find time to use mother's sewing machine.

THEN THERE'S IRONING . . . Washing and ironing chores are tackled by Judy Wolfe and Sally Moore. Both coeds belong to Chi Omega sorority.

Janeth Horton Is Now Mrs. S. Mavar

Reverent simplicity marked the beautiful double-ring ceremony last Saturday evening at Wayfarers' Chapel, Portuguese Bend, when Miss Janeth Horton exchanged wedding vows and rings with Sam Mavar, Jr. The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the 7:30 candlelight service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Horton, 25124 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, and the bridegroom has made his home with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mavar of San Pedro.

Radiant in her traditional wedding gown of Chantilly lace, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. Details of the gown were a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt was of tiers of illusion net falling into a chapel train. Over the front of the skirt was an apron of lace studded with sequins. The illusion bridal veil fell from a modified pill box with lace design and sprinkled with sequins and seed pearls. Three tear-drop pearls fell from the front of the pill box. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of butterfly orchids, stephanotis and valley lilies.

Mrs. Shirley Guisa was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Juli Hietola and Joyce Lonsdale. Their ballerina length gowns were of nylon eyelet over ice blue taffeta, with blue velvet trim. They wore matching picture hats, long gloves and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Peder F. Sherseth served as best man and ushers were Jerry Thomas, R. Courtland Bennett and Ross Bacica. Miss Gilma Glavenic registered the 200 wedding guests.

A reception and dance was held at 543 Shepard St., in San Pedro.

The couple are on a honeymoon and upon their return will be at home at 648 37th St., San Pedro.

The bride, who attended Narbonne and Harbor Junior College, is a past honored queen of Lomita Bethel 137, Order of Job's Daughters. She served as president of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority and is past president of the 19th District Juniors, American Legion Auxiliary.

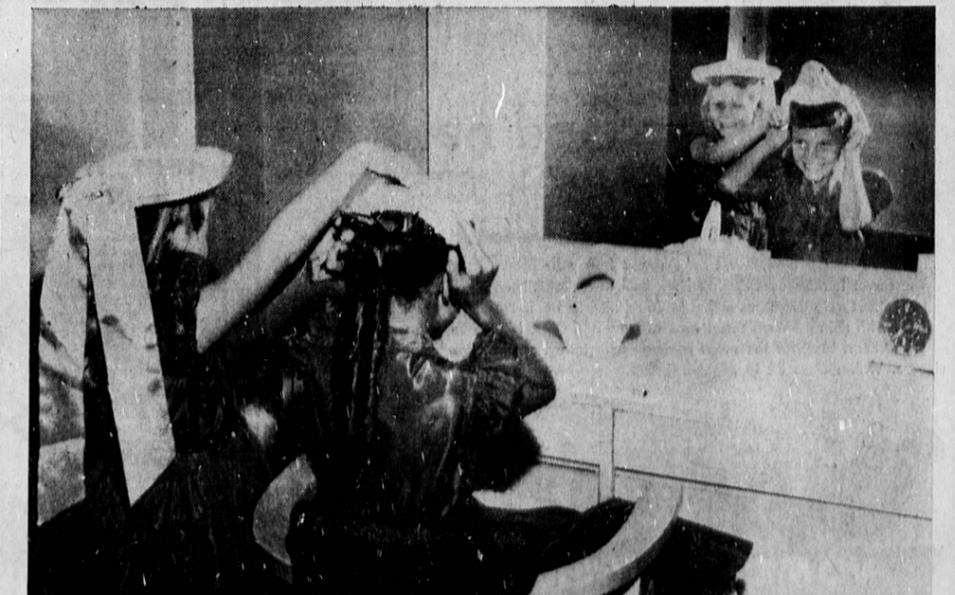

Mr. Mavar, affiliated with the Romans Club, received his education in San Pedro. He has served with the U. S. Army, Armored Division, stationed in Germany. He was also in the Merchant Marines and is now a commercial fisherman.

The bride was honored at several pre-nuptial parties among them a shower given by Mrs. Richard Madden and Mrs. Robert Kukrall. Mrs. Shirley Guisa entertained for her and the employees of Ryan Aeronautical where she has been employed.

"YOU'LL BE THE GRANDEST LADY . . ."

MY EASTER BONNET . . . Ribbons, straws, flowers and ruffles are being studied, by the hour, in front of mother's mirror by Valerie and Susan Foster as they plan to participate in next Sunday's Easter Parade. These youngsters, typifying what's going on in the minds of all little girls, as well as big girls, are the daughters of the Charles Fosters, 1625 205th St. Next Sunday morning the glories of spring will dominate the fashions in the annual Easter parade.

THE EASTER BUNNY HOP . . . On April 12 in the garden room at Portuguese Bend Club, the Triple T Dance Club will hold its monthly dance which will also be guest night for club members. An Easter theme will prevail and Keith Forbes' orchestra will play for dancing. In charge of the event are the 1958 committee members, from left, seated, Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, Mrs. C. R. Houske, standing, from left, Dean L. Sears, Mrs. Sears, H. F. Heinlein, L. G. Pulliam, Mrs. Pulliam, and Dr. C. R. Houske. A cocktail party at the club will be held from 8 until 9 p.m. when dancing will begin.
